

FUNERAL ARRANGEMENTS

The funeral should be arranged within 6 days following the death, by a funeral director of your choice. The mortuary staff have a list of certified funeral directors. If you would like, the deceased can be transferred in the 24 hours following their death to another funeral home or the person's home, or in 48 hours if they are embalmed. This is called "soins de conservation" in French. The mortuary staff can help you with this. Please bring clothes of your choice for the deceased.

RELIGIOUS CEREMONIES

If you would like a small religious ceremony to take place at the mortuary please inform the staff who will arrange it with you. With regard to respecting the rules of public hospitals no payment or donation may be made to the representative of the religion within the grounds of the hospital.

Equally no monetary gifts can be accepted by the hospital or mortuary staff.

THE DAY OF THE FUNERAL

The funeral directors can come and collect your loved one between Monday and Friday and take them to the church/crematorium of your choice. You can be present at this time and follow the funeral director if you wish. Equally you can be present for the closing of the coffin beforehand. These are all arrangements you can make with the funeral director who will advise the mortuary staff.
